“ Dawn, Aunt Joanie, Sheri and Sean

My deepest sympathy on the passing of Tim. Though I haven't seen Tim in many years, it is clear from the pictures how much he loved his family. I remember as a child Tim always had a twinkle in his eye and it seems he never lost that sense of humor and kindness. I wish you all strength and comfort in your wonderful memories of him.

“ Don't Say Goodbye

Watch for me in the high trees
Where the wind plays amongst the leaves
Or whispers in the pine,
Hear me when the night echoes
The owl calling for its mate,
Or the haunting howls of the lone coyote,
Look for me in the reflecting pond
See me in every image,
In every ripple that spreads into eternity,
Touch me when you hold a child,
Feel me when you warm your hands at the fires edge,
Or when you put them together to pray,
Talk to me in times of need,
When troubled and weary,
Laugh with me when your heart is gay,
I have not left you,
I have only gone for a short walk,
Don't say goodbye.
G F Heaney

Dawn I am sorry I didn't get to know Tim but I knew from others that he was a great husband and a wonderful father. I remember him most when he was a child at my mom's house or when I use to babysit him along with his brother and sister. He was a hansom boy and a hansom many with a million dollar smile. My prayers go out to you and your family and to My sister in law with all my love. Uncle Jerry and Aunt Chris
